

To Whom it May Concern,

Power Line Communications (PLC) are a direct threat to those who use HF frequencies. Amateur radio operators, government agencies, emergency relief efforts, literally anyone who uses HF bands and VHF-low bands will be adversely affected by the resultant RFI.

Existing systems, most notably in Japan, have already proven this out.

Please do not consider this data transmission format.

Thank you,

A. R. Miklos WY8M